MILEVA DOBRICH

December: 5 - 15 th 1994

Mileva Dobric

Mileva is a local craft woman. She has taken an introductory course on the paper tole craft with Angie Jovanovich at the Craft Factory and than developed her skills mostly by herself.

Her work ranges from decorative objects like baskets, wreaths, hats to three dimensional paper tole compositions as well as needle work. She also likes knitting, crocheting and sewing. She works on her craft in her spare hours she rarely has. But, nonetheless she finds them miraculously between two customers, between days and nights, those working hours in her shop and at home, to implement magic into her work.

Mileva relates her visual thoughts with her hands, to the nature and to her Serbian origin. Her paper tole craft tells us about birds, flowers, seasonal colours, where pastel blues and rich tones are tastefully incorporated into units of still life, wreaths or baskets. She patiently uses her needle to turn it into a large needlepoint pictures like "The Last Supper", "Maiden of Kosovo" or "Young Couple in Spring".

She is the widowed mother of three children, and a friendly owner of a variety shop.

Her particular talent is a contribution to the museum and community in large; wouldn't it be great to give something from this wide range of exhibited items Mileva makes as a Christmas gift?
