How it all began

October 18 - December 14
2001

established in 1987

The Serbian Heritage Museum opened in 1987 under the auspices of the Serbian Heritage Women's Society. The Museum Committee members operated it.

1. In 1992 this committee was transformed into the Museum Board composed of representatives from major Serbian organizations.

2. The former employees of the Windsor Public Library helped to catalogue the Museum reference books, donated and purchased.

3. Every year during Carrousel of the Nations, volunteers help keep the Museum open longer hours.

4. Two ladies working together made 7 dolls dressed in folk costumes from different regions where Serbs live.

5. To raise funds for the operation of the Museum members from the Circle of Serbian Sisters "Kneginja Jelena", Board members wives, and members of the Serbian Heritage Women's Society bake and sell cookies a few times a year. Organizer for these events has been Mrs. Danica Chuk.

6. Between April and October inclusively, B.B.Q. events are held once a month for the benefit of the Museum. Leading the team of volunteers has been Mrs. Djuja Krickic

7. Exhibits at the Serbian Heritage Museum change 3-4 times a year. These depict historical events and customs of the Serbian people. The first exhibit designer was Mrs. Alexandra Budisavljevich

8. The present members of the Serbian Heritage Museum.

9. To provide financial assistance for the museum

Operation, The Museum Operates the Gift shop that sells souvenirs related to Serbian culture.

10. The Museum staff and volunteers.
